Accommodation

UNI does not provide accommodation for international students. However, students are advised to arrange temporary accommodation (such as a hostel or short-term rental) before arriving in Kosovo.The average monthly cost of an apartment usually ranges between €200–€400, depending on the location and type of accommodation. Shared apartments are also available and can be a more affordable option, with costs typically ranging from €100–€150 per person per month.

Aprox. cost of living per month or students	The estimated monthly cost of living for students in Kosovo is around €300–€600, depending on lifestyle and personal expenses. This usually includes accommodation, food, transportation, and daily expenses. • Accommodation: €200–€400 for a private apartment or around €100–€150 per person for a shared apartment • Food: approximately €150–€250 per month, depending on eating habits and whether students cook at home or eat out • Transportation: around €10–€20 per month (public transportation) • Other personal expenses: approximately €50–€100 per month Students can manage their expenses with a lower budget by sharing accommodation, cooking at home, and using public transportation.
Healthcare	Healthcare for Erasmus students in Kosovo is affordable with insurance, with public services being low-cost but basic, and private clinics offering faster care for 10–60€ per visit.
Nearest Airports	Students can travel to Prishtina through the following nearby international airports: • Pristina International Airport "Adem Jashari" (PRN), Kosovo – 20 km from Prishtina • Skopje International Airport (SKP), North Macedonia – approximately 95 km away • Tirana International Airport "Nënë Tereza" (TIA), Albania – approximately 260 km away
Transport information	Public transport in Prishtina is operated by Trafiku Urban. Ticket Options • One-way: €0.50 • Daily pass: €0.80 (24-hour unlimited travel) • Weekly pass: €4.00 • Monthly pass: €10.00 (students), €12.00 (regular citizens) Tickets can be purchased on the bus (cash) or through the Kuleta Digjitale mobile app. Bus routes and schedules are available via the Trafiku Urban app and Google Maps. For travel to other cities in Kosovo or neighboring countries, students can use the Prishtina Bus Station website or Gjirafa Travel. Taxi services are widely available throughout Prishtina. Students can use the eTaxi app or contact local companies such as Blue Taxi (+383 44 300 300) and Dallas Taxi (+383 44 333 999). Short trips within the city typically cost €2–€5.
